

Our Lady of Victory School children enjoy an assembly by Massachusetts- based circus performer, Mr. Jed Doherty. Through his use of magic and humor, Mr. Doherty "challenged" the children to live as Jesus taught them; by treating each other with respect and by using the talents that God gave them to help others. The interactive performance dazzled the crowd and drove home the message that each person, no matter the size or the age, can make a positive difference in the world.